DISCUSSION OF AWARDS. A. The subscriber has of late called to the numerous indeficiencies of certain Insurance Companies, which has resulted in their bankruptcy, involving loss of premiums upon the unexpected period of risks, as well as more serious losses to Claimants, Stockholders and Endorsers. The undersigned, however, is a member of a firm and prudently stating that the award of the "Old Prize" Office have never been in a more sound and prosperous condition than at the present time. The rejections or an immense number of risks during the last 6 years, which have been eagerly taken, now rather by the public, than by the insurance companies, and subsequently advanced by us, that Insurance is not much a business of Chance as is generally supposed. Its results are capable of being reduced, by Discretion and Experience, to an almost scientific exactness, and an average of disasters ascertained, which is subject to but slight and unimportant variations.

"At the General Agency Office, and the Western and Southern Agencies of the Protection Company, (213 in number,) reporting their aggregate liability of every description, including all losses, paid and unexpired, up to $60,000,000, while the cash amount contributed to the Fund for the payment of these liabilities, exclusive of incoming Western and Southern premiums, or the Capital Stock and other resources of the Office at Hartford, amounts to $81,758.27.
